Department of History

On 02.08.2025, students from the Department of History visited the Kalugumalai Cave Temple as part of our field trip to explore the rich historical and architectural significance of ancient cave temples. The objective of the trip was to provide students with an immersive experience of Tamil Nadu's ancient rock-cut architecture and to enhance their understanding of the region's history. During the visit; students observed and analyzed the intricate rock-cut sculptures, inscriptions, and historical murals that reflect the religious practices of the time. We also discussed the historical context of the temple, including its patronage by the Pallavas and later Pandyas, and the temple's architectural evolution.
